

AUTUMN LECTURE 2022
"NEWLYN ARTS & CRAFTS
COPPER WORK 1890-1930"

Tuesday 11th October

7.30pm for 8.00pm

at Blackheath Village Hall

A Lecture by Olive Maggs and display of copper work by Charles Gillespie

Established in Newlyn, Cornwall in 1890 the Newlyn Industrial Class had an important role in the social and artistic development of the local community. The class produced hand beaten copper work from the 1890s and continued into the twentieth century. 'Newlyn Copper' was useful and beautiful and is now recognised as representing a unique and important part of the history of the British Arts and Crafts.

Tickets: ACMS Members £10
Non-Members & SHS £12

DISCLAIMER: You participate in events at your own risk and neither the Society, nor its officers or the organiser of any event accepts any liability of any kind whatsoever, however arising. The Society reserves the right to cancel or postpone events if necessary, particularly in the light of covid regulations. Members are reminded that they should have adequate personal and travel insurance.

DATA PROTECTION: In arranging events and lectures, members of the Events Committee are involved, who may see the information supplied on this form, which will be retained on a database and will be used for the purpose of event administration. We may compile either a paper or electronic list of names of those attending for distribution amongst the event attendees. If you prefer not to have your name included, please indicate by ticking here.

CANCELLATIONS: If, for any reason you are unable to attend an event for which you have booked, please email or telephone the organiser and inform him/her. Because the price of tickets is calculated to cover the costs of the event, you should note that refunds for those who do not attend are not normally given. However, a refund may be possible on request if someone else can fill an available space, less a £3 administrative fee. This is at the organiser's discretion. If ACMS cancels the event, we will refund the event fee in full.
