

IOCA (UK) Girls Oppie Camp 2016

30th Aug – 1st Sep 2016

Terms and Conditions

1. Organisers

- 1.1. The organisers are IOCA South (the regional organisation for IOCA (UK)), in conjunction with Parkstone Yacht Club.

2. Entry and Eligibility

- 2.1. Entry is open to any female sailor, born in 2007 or earlier.
- 2.2. Sailors must be current paid up members of IOCA (UK).
- 2.3. Entry will be via the website at:
<https://webcollect.org.uk/iocasouth/event/girls-oppie-camp>
- 2.4. The total entry limit will be as published on the website. Entries will only be accepted once paid. If the number of entries exceeds the limit, then any unpaid or subsequent entries will be placed on a waiting list.
- 2.5. The Organisers may reserve places at the Camp for sailors whose parent volunteers to be a House Parent.
- 2.6. The Organisers may exercise their discretion to allow sailors to participate who do not comply with the entry conditions.

3. Camp Supervision

- 3.1. On-the-water supervision at the Camp will be provided by IOCA South coaches.
- 3.2. Off-the-water supervision at the Camp will be provided by the Organisers and House Parents. (Note to Parents/Guardians: The IOCA (UK) Sailor Supervision Guidelines provides guidelines to assist coaches and (principally) house parents who have volunteered to be appointed to supervise young sailors at the IOCA South camp. It clarifies supervision responsibilities, explains the behavioural standards expected by the IOCA (UK), sets out guidance and good practice and explains what should be done if an incident or emergency situation occurs).
- 3.3. You, and your sailor, agree to comply with the instructions of the IOCA South appointed supervisor on and off the water particularly with regard to handling of boats, wearing of buoyancy aids, the wearing of suitable clothing for the conditions, and the behaviour expected of you.
- 3.4. You and your sailor give permission to the IOCA South appointed supervisor to administer your sailor with, any treatment or medication that the sailor brings with them for conditions made known to us in the entry form and also to administer over-the-counter analgesics and decongestants (save where you have told us that you are allergic to them) and to administer emergency first aid when or if necessary.

3.5. If the need arises you authorise the IOCA South appointed supervisor to take your sailor to hospital and give full permission for any necessary treatment required, to be carried out in accordance with the hospital's diagnosis. You will be notified, as soon as possible of the hospital visit and any treatment given or proposed to be given by the hospital.

4. Insurance

4.1. You are responsible for, and required to have, adequate third party (of at least £3million) for your boat.

5. Risk Statement

5.1. You, and your sailor, recognise that sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By participating in the IOCA South Oppie Camp you both agree and acknowledge that:

- a) You are aware on the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and you accept responsibility for exposing yourself to such inherent risks whilst participating in the IOCA South camp;
- b) You will comply at all times with the instructions of the IOCA South appointed supervisors
- c) You accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent cause by your own negligence;
- d) The provision of safety cover is limited to such assistance as can be practically provided in the circumstances.

6. Consent to Use of Images

6.1. Video and photographic images may be used as a coaching aid and published on remote coaching websites.

6.2. You, and your sailor, grant to IOCA South without payment the right in perpetuity to make, use and show any motion pictures, still pictures and live, taped or filmed television of or relating to the camp activity.
