

Alphonse Mucha: The Man, The Artist, The Legacy

| | | | |
|------------------|--|-----------------|--------------|
| Date/Time | Tuesday 26 November 2024 (6pm following the Society's AGM at 5pm) | Price | N/A |
| Venue | The Art Workers' Guild, 6 Queen Square, London WC1N 3AT | Lecturer | Marcus Mucha |

Marcus Mucha, great-grandson of Alphonse Mucha and Executive Director of the Mucha Foundation will talk about Alphonse Mucha's life and work. Marcus will share stories of the efforts his family made to preserve Alphonse Mucha's artistic legacy through Nazi occupation and Communism to the present day. He will talk about the establishment of the Mucha Foundation and the role it has played in securing Mucha's reputation on the world stage.

Lecturer

Marcus Mucha is the great-grandson of visionary Czech artist Alphonse Mucha. He returned to Europe following a successful career in Hollywood, so that he could lead the Mucha Foundation and champion the legacy of Alphonse Mucha for generations to come. Since taking the helm as the Foundation's Executive Director, Marcus has led the Foundation in producing record-breaking and critically acclaimed exhibitions in over thirty cities around the world.