

Art at the Royal Geographical Society

Date/Time	Wednesday 30 October 2019 11.30am-1pm	Price	£15
Venue	Royal Geographical Society, 1 Kensington Gore, London SW7 2AR (Meet at Exhibition Road entrance at 11.15am)	Leader	Royal Geographical Society Librarian

We will see nineteenth- and twentieth-century art which will include drawings, watercolours and oils from around the world - works made in the Arctic, the Antarctic, Africa, Central Asia and South America will all feature. Some of the artists had professional training but most were amateurs.

Nearest underground station – South Kensington.

Leader

Eugene Rae, Royal Geographical Society Librarian