

Bermondsey Bonanza

Date/Time	Tuesday 11 th September 2018 11am-c.1pm	Price	£15
Venue	Meet at Bermondsey Underground Station (Jubilee Line) at 10.50am	Leader	Andrew Davies

We start with the creation of a garden city pioneered by the wonderful Dr Alfred Salter and then stand on the spot where Turner painted 'The Fighting Temeraire'. Next, arguably the finest riverside views on London, followed by converted flour mills, where Dickens set the climax of 'Oliver Twist', the River Neckinger, old warehouses in Shad Thames, the former Courage brewery plus Jacob the dray horse.

And the first railway line in London.....

No wonder Bermondsey is 'on the Up'!

Leader

Andrew Davies, as we know, leads our popular walks and he is an author, broadcaster, The Arts Society and National Trust lecturer. Andrew is the author of nine books including 'The East End Nobody Knows' (unfortunately now out of print). He also runs his own walks and talks company called 'All About'.
