We will explore this most fascinating part of London: from Edwardian and Art Deco cinemas to bustling markets and Electric Avenue; from sumptuous department stores (including Britain's first, dating from 1877) to an impressive town hall, the West Indian connection and the clock with six faces to help railway passengers. And not forgetting the mural tribute to David Bowie and a Georgian windmill - yes, a windmill in Brixton - this walk is full of surprises!

Leader

Andrew Davies leads another welcome walk for us. He is an author, broadcaster, The Arts Society and National Trust lecturer, and walk guide for the Art Fund (London). Andrew is the author of nine books including The East End Nobody Knows (unfortunately now out of print). He also runs his own walks and talks company called All About London.
