

Hogarth's London

Date/Time	Wednesday 24 th July 2019 11am-1pm	Price	£15
Venue	Meet at Dominion Theatre, 268-9 Tottenham Court Road, London W1T 7AQ at 10.50am	Leader	Bridget Daley

This walk conjures up the sights, sounds and smells of the bawdy, noisy, poverty-stricken area of eighteenth-century London depicted by William Hogarth in his Modern Moral Subject engravings, taking us from Tottenham Court Road, through St Giles, Seven Dials, Covent Garden and ending at the Sir John Soane Museum, examining his engravings in the places he depicted.

Leader

Bridget Daly has worked at the Museum of London in Visitor Experience for six and a half years, researching and writing her own talks and tours, both internal and external tours, mainly concentrating on the eighteenth century. She has also conducted tours at The Charterhouse and The Foundling Museum.
