Venue	HSBC Holdings PLC, 8 Canada Square, Canary Wharf, London E14 5HQ Meet in the foyer	Curator	Daniel Lancaster

The HSBC Art Collection was established in 1923 by the bank's then chief manager, Alexander Stephen. It comprises works by artists including Vanessa Bell and Walter Sickert, as well as contemporary works by artists including George Shaw and Phoebe Unwin. A talk by the collection's curator, Daniel Lancaster, is followed by an opportunity to explore the collection in the bank's 45-storey global headquarters, designed by Foster + Partners.
