

Notice of Race
Leigh and Lowton Sailing Club
Sunrise to Sunset Endurance Race
10th June 2023

1 Rules

- 1.1 The event is governed by the rules as defined in The Racing Rules of Sailing 2021-2024.
- 1.2 Racing Rules will be changed as follows:
 - RRS 26: Alternative starting arrangements will be identified in the Sailing Instructions
 - RRS 40.1: Each competitor shall wear a personal flotation device at all times whilst afloat. Wet suits and dry suits are not personal flotation devices. Flag Y will not be displayed.
 - RRS Rule 41: Safety boat crews will be permitted to provide assistance to help recover boats from capsize without penalty. Assistance at crew changeover shall be allowed using other members of the team. Assistance in the event of damage to tow a boat to the hauling out area shall be allowed but the lap completed in whole or part under tow shall be disallowed.
 - RRS Rule 45: A boat shall not be required to be afloat at the preparatory signal. However, the timing of the laps completed by the boat shall be calculated from the race starting time as though the boat had been afloat.
 - RRS Rule 48: Teams will be allowed to substitute class compliant equipment and sails during the race. Spare hulls of the same class will not be allowed. Crew shall be allowed to leave the boat to change to a different crew.
 - RRS Rule 61.1: Teams shall be required to use protest flags, red, minimum 100mm x 100mm but the time to display shall be until the protestor is satisfied that the protestee has undertaken the necessary penalty or that the protestor has finished their sailing session.
 - RRS Rule 62.2 is changed to require requests for redress to be delivered within the protest time limit.
 - RRS Rule 77 is changed to allow sails to be used without compliance with Appendix G of Racing Rules of Sailing 2021-2024 with regards to national letters and numbers on sails.

The changes will appear in full in the Sailing Instruction. The Sailing Instructions may also change other racing rules.

12 Risk Statement

- 12.1 Rule 3 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone."
Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:
 - a) They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
 - b) They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
 - c) They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;
 - d) Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
 - e) The provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the event organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
 - f) The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;
 - (g) It is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced for the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event.

13 Insurance

- 13.1 Each participating boat shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of at least £3,000,000 per incident.
